

Ken's e-mails: Ringing a few bells

Story Published: May 11, 2007

By Ken Schram

Seems I rang a few bells with folks who think my support of the new sanctuary movement emerging here in Seattle is totally out of line.

David Jones writes: "Ken, you're a bozo! Send all illegal people back (to where they came from)...I'm tired of (the) fighting for illegal immigrants to have what is not theirs."

Arnie Brandon: "Raid the churches and start taxing them if dictating political policy is their aim."

Dr. Michael J. Fleming: "I really think your thinking and logic are seriously flawed (and) irrational...If you can't fundamentally understand the difference between right and wrong (or) from illegal and legal."

Joe Julian: "How dare these churches advocate breaking the law."

Rebecca Duncan: "It's people like you that make us have to dial '1' for English!"

And finally, from Walter Rissler: "I believe the misguided people who propose the sanctuary movement are anarchists. I believe that you advocating for them makes you an anarchist, or at least an anarchist sympathizer. Since anarchists are extremely dangerous...I will be filing a complaint with the FCC about you."

Oh no. Not the FCC! I don't want to be treated like Janet Jackson's boob!

Have a good weekend everyone, and thanks for writing.